A technical drawing of a shape, possibly a keyhole or a similar component. The shape is defined by a thick black outline. It features a rounded, teardrop-shaped top section, a narrow neck, and a long, slightly tapered stem. A label '1A' is positioned on the left side, with a small triangle pointing to the left edge. A label '2B' is located at the bottom center, with a small triangle pointing to the bottom edge. The text 'CUT 2' is written vertically inside the top rounded section.
